Mr Chapman
Dear Sir:

Rec^d Letter and contents noted. I am pleased to think of the kind offer of the England Gold 5 Guinea $26. face or at $32. but must still say that I am not in the purchase as yet. I am putting steam heat in one of my Houses, at quite an expense, and two of us will go to St Louis & Missouri and also to California, together will cost not less the $2000. And this comes in first. I expect to be in the City in 2 or 4 weeks and will stop in see you.

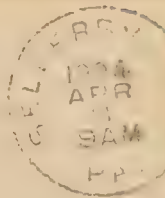

Respectfully
O. H. Nase

Gentlemen

Rec^d Letter. You would not mind seeing the Gold coins mentioned. Some time ago among a lot of gold you had sent, was a United States $5. gold Eagle. I do not remember the date. It had a Eagle on one side. I think it was a Eagle with a head in its mouth, on the one side. Have you got that yet, if so I think I like to see it.
Send the coins by U.S. Express at my expense.
Send them after the 3rd of January.

Respectfully
O. H. Nase

In approval,

Sp^d Cash for all my exp. & return

P.S.

Was or is there ~~there~~ $10. Eagles of that same kind with that wreath in the mouth.
